

Civil Discourse in Action: A Healthcare Reform Dialogue

1. Do you think Americans have lost the art of civil discourse and the ability to engage in polite political conversation?
2. Do you live in Washington's 8th Congressional District?*

If you answered yes to these questions, the League of Women Voters of Seattle-King County invites you to participate in a grassroots experiment. We're bringing together a group of residents with different political, religious, ethnic and cultural perspectives to have an informed discussion about healthcare reform. The League will share your views and ideas with your Congressional representatives, and hopefully find some common ground along the way.

Saturday, March 31
10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Downtown Issaquah

Light buffet to be provided. To ensure balanced views in small discussion groups, participants will be pre-selected and MUST register in advance. To register, please visit www.seattlelwv.org by March 16.

Funded by a Civic Education Grant from the League of Women Voters of Washington Education Fund

*The 8th Congressional District is located in central WA and includes Chelan and Kittitas Counties as well as portions of Douglas, King, and Pierce Counties.
